

Someone new

Someone who doesn't speak English yet

Someone with a different accent

Older people

Who might feel invisible?
Think of different groups of people who get left out or forgotten

Someone who doesn't like football

Someone with different beliefs

Someone with a disability

What could you do to make these people feel included?